JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States with respect to the number of terms of office of Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
 2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled 3 (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the fol- 4 lowing article is proposed as an amendment to the Con- stitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years from the date of its submission by the Congress:

“ARTICLE —

“No person who has been elected to the Senate two times shall be eligible for election or appointment to the Senate. No person who has been elected to the House of Representatives six times shall be eligible for election to the House of Representatives.”

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States:

“ARTICLE —

“SECTION 1. No person who has been elected for a full term to the Senate two consecutive times shall be eligible for election or appointment to the Senate for a third consecutive term. No person who has been elected for a full term to the House of Representatives six consecutive times shall be eligible for election to the House of Representatives for a seventh consecutive term.

“SECTION 2. Service as a Senator or Representative for more than half of a term to which someone else was originally elected shall be considered an election for the purposes of section 1.

1 “SECTION 3. This article shall be inoperative unless 2 it shall have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths 3 of the several States within seven years from the date of 4 its submission to the States by the Congress.

5 “SECTION 4. No election or service occurring before this 6 article becomes operative shall be taken into account when 7 determining eligibility for election under this article.

8 “SECTION 5. No provision of any State statute or con-9 stitution shall diminish or enhance, directly or indirectly, 10 the limits set by this article.”.
